

Please limit the number of stations in any market that may be owned by a single company and/or person. The diversity of our information as well as the quality will be forever damaged if all of our information comes from too few sources. Help the FCC to serve the people, not the industry.

thank you, James Register